RESEARCH · DATA AS OF NOVEMBER 2026

Nevada County's nonprofits

A picture of the nonprofit sector in Nevada County, California: how many organizations there are and how big, how the largest 250 show up online, which public calendars exist, and who funds local work. Built only from public sources: the IRS exempt-organization file, Form 990 filings, grant records compiled by Kindora, and each organization's own website.

Three findings

1. Most charities are small on paper, and revenue is concentrated. Of the 725 501(c)(3) charities registered at Nevada County ZIP codes, 497 (69%) show revenue under $50,000 or no revenue figure on the IRS file. The 40 public charities with the most revenue account for 72% of the $311 million recorded for all 694 public charities on the IRS file, using each one's latest return (reporting years differ).
2. No technology or communications titles in Part VII. In the Form 990 Part VII lists of the 40 largest (officers, directors, key employees and the five highest-paid employees), no title names technology or communications. That doesn't mean nobody does the work. Of the 250 largest, 150 have a website on record and 140 home pages loaded; 66 link an events page with dates and 81 show a newsletter signup.
3. No shared planning view in the seven calendars we reviewed. We reviewed seven public calendars, on at least six different platforms. Most link an iCal feed, so a combined view is technically possible, but on the pages we saw none offers a planning view where nonprofits can see each other's upcoming dates, including tentative ones.

895 tax-exempt organizations of all kinds are registered at Nevada County ZIP codes; 170 of them are other exempt types such as social welfare groups, social clubs and business leagues. 17 of the 501(c)(3)s are on the California Attorney General's list of charities that may not operate or ask for donations (11 revoked, 3 delinquent and 3 suspended, list as of November 4, 2026); one is in the table below, flagged. Grass Valley has 290 of the charities, Truckee 170 and Nevada City 167.

The 250 public charities with the most revenue

Ranked by revenue on the latest return, shown as a band. Search by name, city, mission or field; filter by events page or revenue; sort with the buttons in the header. “Yes” means the home page links an events or calendar page (each link checked by hand); “Not assessed” means automated access was blocked or no working website is on record. Neither says anything about the quality of an organization’s website.

Digital capacity

0 of 40: no title naming technology or communications appears in Part VII of their latest Form 990, which lists officers, directors, key employees and the five highest-paid employees over the reporting threshold. A general title can hide that work, so this is a signal, not a staffing count. Signals across the 250 largest, from their home pages:

What the data shows

Every figure below is counted from the data files at build time, with its source and date under it. Organizations only, aggregates only.

Who shows up online, by size

Of the home pages that loaded, organizations in the three largest revenue bands link an events page 47% of the time (17 of 36); organizations under $250K, 43% (22 of 51).

The calendar’s rhythm

3,045 events were on the county calendar in the 52 weeks to November 2. Saturday is the busiest day and Monday the quietest; Oct and Nov are the busiest months (about 79 and 74 events a week).

Events per week. The five busiest weeks are darker.

None of these organizers can see the others' plans ahead of time, only what is already published. A shared planning view, with tentative dates, is what would let them spread out.

What the IRS asks them to file

360 of 725 (50%) are required to file only the e-Postcard (990-N), which carries no financial detail.

Revenue, 2020 to 2023

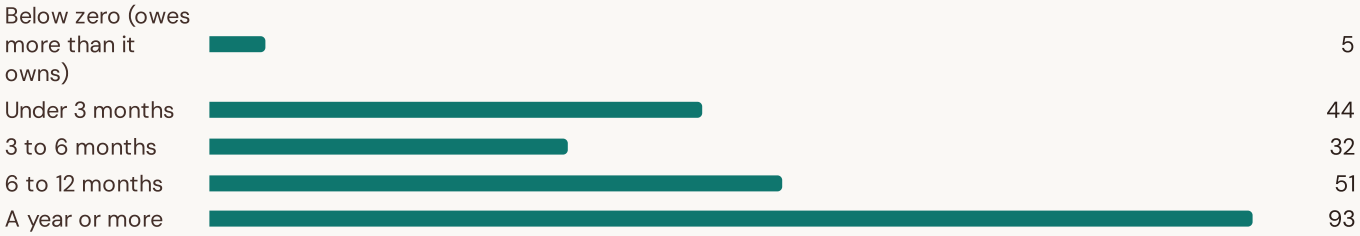

The 186 organizations with a filing in every one of these years went from $183.1M to $246.1M (+34%). 141 grew by more than 10%, 29 shrank by more than 10% and 15 stayed within 10%.

Compared with the neighbors

Nevada County has 60 charities for every 10,000 residents, the most of the 4 counties compared (El Dorado 45, Placer 45, Yuba 35). Its public charities' recorded revenue comes to $2,686 per resident.

Source: the IRS Business Master File for each county, assigned by 2020 census ZIP areas (ZCTAs, by largest land area), with Census PEP Vintage 2024 (POPESTIMATE2024). The same method for every county, so these compare; it counts 616 charities for Nevada County, where the page's own figure (725, by the 12 mailing ZIPs, which include post office boxes) is higher. Revenue per resident follows where large organizations are based: Placer's includes major hospital systems.

USAspending has no EIN, so organizations are matched by name and Nevada County ZIP code, and each award's recipient name is checked; an organization with no match may still receive federal money under another name or through a pass-through agency. Amounts are each award's total obligation, not what was spent in a year. Agencies reaching fewer than 3 of the 250 are grouped. Federal fiscal years start October 1.

Foundation and community grants: the 40 largest of the 40 have at least one tracked foundation, community or donor-advised funder

30
receive gifts through donor-advised platforms

have no tracked funder in these sources

8 more funders reach 3 of the 40 each.

Donor-advised platforms are not funders themselves. Schwab Charitable Fund (21 of the 40), Fidelity Investments Charitable Gift Fund (20 of the 40) and American Online Giving Foundation (17 of the 40) pass along gifts that individual donors recommend from their own funds, so those gifts come from donor relationships rather than an open application.

Source: Kindora — kindora.co, read Nov 11, 2026, 9:53 AM, built-in copy. Private-foundation grants from IRS Form 990-PF filings (filing years 2022–2026) plus verified announced grants, via Kindora. Government grants and most donor-advised giving are not in this data, so an empty list means no tracked funder reported a grant, not that the organization has no funders. Donor-advised fund sponsors and giving platforms pass along other people's gifts; they are counted as donor-advised money, never as foundations. Lists are capped for the largest recipients, so shares are floors. Funders are counted by how many organizations they reach, never by amounts to one organization. Two records for one funder count once.

Ten questions only a survey can answer

Public records stop here. If you run or help run a Nevada County nonprofit, these ten questions take about two minutes, and every answer is counted, never quoted.

Answer the ten questions at techempower.org/research/nonprofit-survey.

1. Who does your technology and communications work?
2. What do you spend a year on software, devices and IT help?

3. Which tool frustrates you most?
4. How far ahead do you set your own event dates?
5. How long does posting one event to the calendars you use take?
6. Would you post your dates to a shared planning calendar other nonprofits and venues could see?
7. How far ahead do the venues you book fill up?
8. How do most of your clients go online?
9. In the last two years, have you had any of these?
10. What training would you send someone to next year?

Method and limits

- Counts are by ZIP code, not the county line: 95977 is mostly in Yuba County, and three small Nevada County ZIP codes (Chicago Park, Norden, Soda Springs) are left out.
- Revenue is the latest return on the IRS file; other sources may show a different year's figure.
- Website signals come from each readable home page and, where there was one, its first events link; sites behind bot checks weren't assessed.
- No organization was contacted, and no personal data is used. Job titles were read, never names.
